1. During the three weeks preceding 9 September 1948, from four to eight railroad carloads of scrap armor plate were loaded on barges daily at the Lloyd and DDSG docks in Vienna for shipment to Budapest, to the Manfred-Weiss munitions works. These shipments are in accordance with an agreement concluded by USIA with one Kics, who represented Hungary. The agreement provides for the shipment to Hungary of 8,000 tons of such scrap.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1983 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
